

THE COURT: Are you pressing your objection?

MR. SIMPSON: I will withdraw the question, for the time being.

Q Can you say whether or not this woman had a light colored coat on and that she was a white haired woman, can you say that?

A This coat was of light material, that is the only thing I can say.

Q What about the hair? Didn't you talk to Mr. Bergen when you were detained as a witness, tell him something about the hair?

A I was asked whether she had a hat on, and I am not positive about it.

Q Did you see the lights go up in the house after this woman went in?

A No sir.

MR. SIMPSON: That is all.

MR. PFEIFFER: No cross.

J A M E S M I L L S, a witness produced on behalf of the state, being duly sworn according to law upon his oath testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. SIMPSON:

Q Where do you live, Mr. Mills?

A 49 Carman Street.

Q How old are you? A 49

Q And you live at 49 Carman Street?

A Yes sir.

Q And were you married on the 14th of September - that is, were you in the married state, on the 14th of September, 1922?

A Yes.

Q Did you have a wife? A Yes.

Q What was her name? A Eleanor, Reinhardt.

Q Mills? A Yes.

Q How long had you been married to her?

A Over 20 years.

Q And where were you living on the 14th of September 1922?

A At 49 Carmon Street.

Q The same address you live at now? A Yes.

Q And you knew what time she left the house that night?

A Around half past seven.

Q Were you there when she left?

A I was.

Q What if anything did you say before she left the house?

A I asked her where she was going -

MR. PFEIFFER: If your honor please, this impresses me as objectionable as to what someone said to this witness. It isn't the statement made by any person who is here accused of crime. There is no foundation laid for its being put in, in any fashion at all, as I can see.

MR. SIMPSON: Hunter vs the State is quite plain. A declaration by the decedent which is part of the litigated act is admissible and that is exactly what it is here. When the dead man went away from his house he said something in the absence of Hunter and he wrote a letter to his wife that Hunter never saw and yet Chief Justice Beasley admitted it as part of the res gestae just as this is part of the declaration of the person that has been killed. Hunter against the State is 40 New Jersey Law. The first proof of that, point three and four of the memorandum.

(Discussion off of the record)

THE COURT: I am not so familiar with the decision, although that decision was quoted in the Turco case in 99, the last reports, State vs Turco up in Sussex County and they quote with approval the Hunter case in which the Chief Justice said, Time may be great or small - I don't - know that he uses just that verbage. I think if this is on the same evening as the murder and under the Turco decision, or the Hunter decision, as the case may be, I will permit the question.

MR. PFEIFFER: Will your honor limit that to what occurred on the evening of September 14th?

THE COURT: That is what the question is limited to at this time. The question is directed to what, if anything, she said when she left her house and did not return.

Q What did she say?

A She said to me, "Follow me and find out." I asked her where she was going.

Q And she said, "Follow me and find out?" ^A/"Follow me and find out" W

Q What did you say?

A I didn't say anything back, I just passed it off like as a joke.

Q Had you had any conversations with her that day as to where she was going that night?

A No.

Q What time did you come home?

A I came home about a quarter after six.

Q And was she in the house when you came home?

A Yes sir.

Q Did she say anything to you about her movements other than "Follow me and find out?"

A No.

Q And what time did she leave?

A Around half past seven.

Q Anybody come while you were there to get her to go to a telephone to answer the telephone?

A A quarter past six.

Q How long had you been out? What time had you left the house that day?

A Yes.

Q In the morning? A Yes.

Q Now, you came back you say at half past six or seven.

What time did you say you came back?

A I came back - what do you mean, in the morning?

Q You didn't come back in the morning, did you?

A I came home to my dinner.

Q What time did you come home to dinner?

A 12 o'clock.

Q Was your wife there then? A Yes.

Q Did you have any conversation with her as to where she was going that night?

A No sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with her at all? Don't tell us what she said, but did you talk to her?

A I don't know what was said, it doesn't amount to anything.

Q Simply casual conversation? A Yes.

Q And then you went out again to work, did you?

A Yes.

Q And you were at the school all afternoon? A Yes.

Q How long were you in the house when she began preparations to go out, to make preparations to go out?

A About fifteen or twenty minutes.

Q Did you have supper with her when you got home?

A Yes sir.

Q It took more than fifteen or twenty minutes to have supper, didn't it?

A Well, I got home a quarter after six.

Q Did you sit right down to supper?

A Sat right down and had supper.

Q What time did she leave?

A She left about half past seven.

Q You came home about a quarter after six? A Yes.

A Not with me, she was sitting on the front stoop.

Q With whom? A My daughter.

Q She wasn't talking with you? A No.

A No.

Q Had you seen any letters before she left?

A I saw letters in a coat pocket that hung about two days or so in the hall but I never bothered with them.

Q Did you read one?

A No, I seen one top said, "Honey"

Q When was that with reference to the time she went out? When was it you found those letters?

A It was a couple of days before that ride to Lake Hopatcong.

Q What was the date of the ride to Lake Hopatcong?

A Wednesday.

Q Then two days before would bring it Monday that you found these letters?

A Yes.

Q What time of the day did you find them?

A At noon time.

Q Came home for your dinner. Was she there when you found them?

A She was.

Q Did she see you take them out?

A No, she didn't see me.

Q Where was she when you took them out of the pocket?

A In the kitchen.

Q This coat was where?

A Hanging on the rack right off the kitchen in the hall.

Q You didn't read these letters?

A No, I didn't bother.

Q They were in a man's handwriting?

A They weren't a man's.

Q Whose writing were they in?

A My wifes' writing.

Q Did you put them back into the pocket?

A Yes. I didn't touch them.

Q You never saw them after that? A No.

Q Now then, when she went out at 7.30 did you see her again that night?

A No.

Q Was your daughter there?

A No, my daughter went away before My wife did.

Q You said your wife was outside talking with your daughter on the porch?

A Yes, oh the porch and she went before my wife went.

Q How long before your wife went away?

A Maybe about fifteen minutes.

Q Did you know anything about this affair between your wife and doctor Hall?

A No, did not.

Q Now, what was the next time you saw your wife, or her body, where was it?

A I didn't see it.

Q You never saw it? That is, you never saw her after she left the house that night?

A No sir.

Q What did you do after you got up the next morning?

A I went down to the store and got buns and made the doffee.

Q Did you do anything Thursday Night after your wife went out?

A Yes, I was working on some racks on the back stoop, window boxes.

Q How long? A I worked there until about a quarter of ten.

Q You didn't go out of the house?

A I went to the Church.

Q When did you go to the Church?

A Ten minutes after 11 I got to the Church.

Q What did you do when you got there?

A I closed the windows and locked the door. Closed the windows in the Church.

Q What did you do about lights?

A Lighted the lights.

Q What did you put the lights on for?

A To see what I was doing when I closed the windows.

Q How long were you there doing that?

A Maybe about 15 minutes all told.

Q What time did you leave the Church?

A About 20 minutes past.

Q What? A 11.

Q Were the lights on or did you put the lights out?

A I put the lights out and locked the door and came home.

Q Then you were in the house after that?

A Yes, I was in my own home.

Q Did you see anybody in the church when you went there?

A No.

Q What was the last time you were in the Church before you went in at 11 o'clock?

A Quarter past six.

Q Quarter past six up to 11. What time did you go in at a quarter past six or leave at a quarter past six?

A I didn't go in, I left the Church.

Q What time did you go in the church?

A Five minutes to six I was at the church cleaning up shavings. The ministers wife had some carpenters in the outside vestibule of the Sunday School.

Q Five Minutes to six, is that the time you got to the Church?

A Yes.

Q And you stayed there until 20 after?

A Quarter after.

Q Was there anybody in the Church?

A Nobody was there, except Mr. Hall came at five minutes to six.

Q What did he do?

A He went in the church and came out about five minutes after six and went towards his house.

Q Do you know where he went? When he went in the church

A No.

Q You don't know, but in the church. Did he say anything to you as he went in or out?

A He asked me about the job there, what I thought of the work.

I said, "It is very nice, Mr. Hall it is a pretty good job." I said, " You had better get some paint and keep the weather out of the wood and I will paint ti."

And Mr. Hall didn't say any more, he will order paint, and he started towards his Dodge Sedan at the outside door. There was a little girl, a little child in the car with him.

Q The next morning you got up at what time?

A Quarter to six.

Q Did you go back to the church after 11 o'clock?

A Yes, I did.

Q What time? A Around two o'clock.

Q What did you go back at two o'clock for?

A I thought my wife might have gotten one of them bad spells, and fell in the seats or something. I didn't look good at 11 o'clock.

Q So you decided to make a thorough search at two o'clock

A Yes.

Q Did you go at 11 o'clock to look for her, the first time?

A No, I didn't think of it.

Q When she didn't come home at two you went over?

A Yes.

Q Did you light up the church? A Yes.

Q How long were you in the church?

A I was there about 15 minutes.

Q What time did you get there?

A A little after two.

Q How much after two? A Well, maybe about 5 minutes.

Q And how long did you stay there?

A About 15 minutes.

Q Well, would that put you out about half past two?

You left there about half past two?

A No, it is only about three minutes walk from my house.

Q I am talking about how long you were in the church there. You were in about five after two in the morning. How long were you there?

A About 20 minutes after.

Q So it was around half past two when you went out of the church?

MR. PFEIFFER: If your honor please, that is a direct misquotation for a purpose.

MR. SIMPSON: It is good he has got the gift of mind reading.

MR. PFEIFFER: I think I have got mind reading in this question.

THE COURT: I don't know what the object is. If it is a misquotation it will be corrected.

MR. SIMPSON: He says he went in the church five minutes after two. He said he stayed about twenty, which would bring him to 25 after two and I think it is quite plain to everybody that 25 after two is in the neighborhood of half past two.

MR. PFEIFFER: Now, your honor, that isn't the testimony.

THE COURT: That is what counsel -

MR. PFEIFFER: I think it would be better to read the testimony?

MR. SIMPSON: I don't want it read.

MR. PFEIFFER: Your honor I do want it read.

THE COURT: I want to know the ~~purpose~~ purpose before I rule upon it as to whether or not this is-

MR. SIMPSON: He doesn't state any grounds for his objection.

THE COURT: He says it is a misquotation of the evidence.

MR. PFEIFFER: I insist -

MR. SIMPSON: You will insist on a lot.

I withdraw the question.

Q What time did you go into the church around two o'clock?

A About five minutes after two.

Q Now, that is sure, isn't it, in your mind? How long did you stay in the church then, making this careful search for your wife?

A About 15 minutes all told.

Q Why did you say 20 minutes a few minutes ago?

MR. PFEIFER: He didn't say it.

A Twenty minutes past.

Q Didn't you say twenty minutes, Mr. Mills, when I asked you how long you waited?

MR. PFEIFFER: He said twenty minutes past two.

MR. SIMPSON: I object to this kind of examination. He has got the right to make objections but he has got no right to prance into my testimony this was.

THE COURT: Counsel has a right to ask the witness if before he didn't say twenty minutes.

Q Have you any definite recollection of the extent of time that you stayed in the church making a search for your wife?

A Well, it couldn't be over 15 minutes.

Q Why did you say twenty before?

A I didn't say 20, I said 20 minutes past.

Q Did you look at your watch when you came out?

A The clock was in the room and I turned the lights on.

Q Did you look at the clock?

A Yes.

Q Was it going? A Yes.

Q What kind of a clock was it?

A It was a stationary clock on the wall.

Q What caused you to look at it this particular night?

A I always did that, it is right over the light.

Q You looked at the clock every time you turned the lights on?

A Yes.

Q Now, your best recollection is that it was about 20 after two when you turned the lights on?

A Yes.

Q Was it 21 or 19? A I couldn't say right, it was 20 minutes past.

Q Then you turned the lights out? A Yes.

Q And locked up. What kind of lights had you lighted up? Had you lighted the whole church?

A Yes.

Q How many windows in the church?

A I don't know exactly.

Q How many lights did you turn on?

A I put them all on?

Q All on? A Yes.

Q How many are there? A I don't know.

Q When did you put them on?

A I put them on when I went in the church five after 2.

A I put them on when I went in the church five after 2.

Q And you kept them lit until you want out?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember anybody rattling the door while you were in that church?

A No.

Q Anybody try to get in? A No.

Q Was there anybody in the vicinity of the church when you came out?

A No.

Q As you came out of the church how did you go home?

A Through the same way I came back.

Q How was that?

A Over George Street, down Carman; it is only half a block.

Q Would that take you past the Hall home or wouldn't you reach the Hall home?

A No, it is the other way.

Q Did you see anybody around the church when you came out?

A Nobody.

Q Now then, the next morning when you got up, what happened?

A Friday morning I went to the store, across the street

a quarter to six, to make some breakfast.

Q Was your wife home? A No.

Q Did you go looking for her?

A No, I did not.

Q What did you do?

A I made the breakfast and got the children ready for school and went back to the school myself.

Q Did you make any search for your wife?

A No,

Q Did she have any relatives? That she could have gone to visit?

A Yes.

Q Did you telephone to them? A No, I did not.

Q Had she ever been out all night before?

A Well, she had gone to her sisters at times.

Q What sister? A Her sister in Paterson, I guess.

Q She often stayed out all night? A No.

Q Well, had she stayed out all night before?

A Yes.

Q At the sisters? A Sisters house.

Q At any other than her sisters would she stay out all night?

A Not as I know of.

Q So, you didn't make any inquiry at all?

A No.

Q You assumed she was with her sister and would come home, I suppose?

A Yes.

Q Now, where did you go when you left the house Friday?

A I went to the school Friday.

Q What time? A I went to the School 5 minutes to 7.

Q Did you see Mrs. Hall, that day, Friday?

A Yes.

Q What time did you see her?

A I met her between half past eight and nine o'clock.

Q Where? A At the church.

Q Did you go to the church before her or did she go before you to the church?

A I guess it was before she was there.

Q How long were you there before she came?

A About five minutes.

Q What did she say to you, if anything, and what did you say to her?

A Well, she said to me, " Did you have any sickness at your home last night?" First she said -- first she said, "Good morning." Then I said, Good morning, Mrs. Hall," She said, " Did you have any sickness at your home last night?" I said, " No, Mrs. Hall." She says, " Mr. Hall has not come home all night." I said, " My wife hasn't come home all night. "

Something popped up. I said, "Maybe they eloped," like that. "I don't know," Mrs. Hall said, they are dead or they would come home."

Q Now, what time was it Mrs. Hall said, "They are dead?" what time was it?

A That was about 20 minutes to 9. Friday 10th

Q And did you say anything when she said, "They are dead?" Did you say, "Why, Mrs. Hall, why do you say they are dead?" Did you say anything like that? Did she continue the conversation and tell you what she meant by "They are dead?"

A No.

Q How long was she there?

A She wasn't there over five minutes.

Q When was the next time you saw her that day?

A I saw her at my home?

Q What time? A After 12 o'clock.

Q Did she come there? A Yes.

Q After she had this conversation with you in the church she went to your home?

A 12 o'clock.

Q What conversation did you have with her at your home?

A She asked me if I heard anything. I said, "No, Mrs. Hall, I haven't heard anything." I said, "If I do her anything, I will let you know." That is all was said. She went down the back stair and towards Carman Street.

2014 p21

Q That is all you said and that is all she said. Then what was the next time you saw Mrs. Hall?

A The next time I seen Mrs. Hall I had left the school at 5 o'clock and went after ice at the ice house.

I came back with the ice and placed it in the ice box on my back stoop. While I was there Mrs. Hall came in and she asked me if I had heard anything. I said, " No, Mrs. Hall, I have heard nothing; I amat sea; I don't know what to make it."

Q And that was the second time that she came to your house?

A Yes.

Q Did you ask her why she kept coming to your house?

A No, I didnot.

Q ~~Did~~ To find out if you knew anything?

A No.

Q Did you continue the conversation by asking her why she --

A No.

Q You weren't sure you could find out, when nine o'clock before in the morning of Friday/the bodies were discovered

she said, "They must be dead."--

MR. PFEIFFER: Whether Mr. Mills is curious doesn't need to be pertinent in this inquiry.

I certainly object to the form of the question.

THE COURT: I will sustain the objection.

Q Did you have any talk with Mrs. Hall about notifying the police?

A No, I didn't - Yes I did too. She said, she told me she notified the police that night?

Q What night? A Thursday.

Q That she had notified the police. Did she tell you what she said?

A She asked if there was any casualties during the night?

Q When was it she told you she had done this? When was the conversation with her, was that Friday Morning?

A Yes.

Q And the conversation Friday when she did say she had asked the police if there had been any casualties?

You say she had done that on Thursday night or Friday morning or when?

A Friday morning.

Q She asked the police if there had been any casualties then?

A Yes.

Q Did she tell you she hadn't given her name to the police? A Yes.

Q Did you ask her why she hadn't given her name to the police? When she asked for casualties?

A The man on the other end of the phone.

Q I am trying to get you to tell not about the man on the other end of the phone, but what she said to you. What did she tell you about the phone message which she delivered - if she had given her name or had not given her name to the police?

A She hadn't given her name.

Q Did you ask her why she hadn't given her name?

A No.

Q You say she told you she asked the police if there had been any casualties. Did she tell you she asked the police if anybody^{ies} had been found?

A No.

Q Now then, was that the last time you saw Mrs. Hall on that day?

A No, I saw her at ther home.

Q What time? A Around 8 o'clock.

Q How did you come to go to her home?

A Well, I opened up the church for choir rehearsal.

Q What time did you open up the church for the choir rehearsal?

A Around 8 o'clock.

Q How did you come to go to her home?

A I went up there to see her.

Q Had you heard anything?

A To see if I could hear or find out anything.
Up to

Q ~~after~~ that time had you tried to find out from her sisters if she had been with them?

A No.

Q Why did you go to the Hall home instead of going to her sisters to find out something about her? You say she had stopped with her sisters overnight so the mere being away overnight would not upset you and because you thought she was with her sisters. Why did you keep going to the Hall home all the time instead of to her sisters?

A I went to Mrs. Hall's house, I thought maybe I could find out something from her?

Q What time did you get there? A Around 8 o'clock.

Q You didn't think your wife went away with Dr. Hall?

A No, I did not.

Q What did you expect to find out in the Hall home?

You say you didn't find out anything about the alleged relations between your wife and Dr. Hall. Her being out all night was not particularly surprising to you.

Why did you keep going to Mrs. Hall's house that night to find out about it?

A Mrs. Hall had come to me.

Q What occurred before? Where was Mrs. Hall?

A Sitting on the front porch.

Q Anybody with her? A No, all alone.

How

Q ~~Why~~ was she dressed? A I can't just remember.

Q What did you say to her and what did she say to you?

A I said, "Mrs. Hall have you heard anything at all?"

She said, "No." She asked me if I heard anything.

I said, "No, but I am at sea; I don't know what to make of it?"

Q What did she say?

A She said she was looking at a blank wall.

Q Did she say anything else?

A Then she talked a few minutes there and she said to me, "They are dead or they would come home."

Q Well, she had already said that in the morning? Did she say that at night?

A Yes.

Q They are dead? A Yes.

Q Did you ask her why she put your wife with her husband because you say you knew of ~~no~~ relations and she knew of no relations - did you ask her why the mere fact that your wife was out all night caused her to put your wife with her husband and say they are dead? Did you ask her that?

A No, I didnot.

Q Then on Saturday what happened?

A Saturday morning I got up and went to the school to work and as I went to the school to work I couldn't work.

Q Why?

A Because my wife hadn't come home and I was worried then because she hadn't come home and I went home and got washed up anddressed and went up to Mrs. Clarke's house to find out if I could find anything there. Mrs. Clarke said she hadn't been there in weeks.

Q Then what did you do?

A I went from there back home.

Q What time did you come home?

A I guess it was around 11 o'clock. I went and got the dinner ready. My ~~son~~ daughter and son was there. After dinner I started out and went up to My sister in laws on Albany Street. I asked her if she heard anything of my wife?

Q What time was that? A It was after dinner.

Q Saturday- A Saturday afternoon.

Q So you didn't make any inquiry of your wife of people who you thought might know where she was until the Saturday following her disappearance, is that right?

A Yes.

Q What did you find out if anything up there?

A She said she hadn't heard anything.

Q Then what did you do?

A I started away from there. We talked a few minutes and I got down about a hundred foot from the elevation on Albany Street and a little girl came running down to me and this little girl said, " Mrs. Tennyson wants to see you across the street."

Q Yes?

A Mrs. Tennyson, my sister-in-law. I went back and I think the family name was Sylvester. I went to their house across the street from my sister in laws and they said there was a telephone just came saying that Mr. Hall was found dead, and an unidentified woman.

Q You never saw your wife after that?

A No sir.

Q Did you have any other conversations with Mrs. Hall about it after the bodies were found?

A I went to Mrs. Hall's house.

Q When? A That Saturday afternoon.

Q What occurred there?

A I felt all in. I guess I was all in, I don't know.

They gave me something to drink, I don't know, aromatic spirits of amonia, I guess.

Q Who gave it to you?

A Some lady, I just forget.

Q Was there any talk with Mrs. Hall or was anybody in the presence of Mrs. Hall about this murder?

A No.

Q Did you know there had been a murder up to that time?

Did you know at that time that your wife had been murdered?

A Yes.

Q Who did you find in the Hall home when you went there Saturday afternoon?

A There was two or three people there, I just forget who was there.

Q You don't know who was there?

A No.

Q You recall no conversation with Mrs. Hall at all?

A No.

Q You didn't say, "You were right, Mrs. Hall, they were dead, or anything of that kind?"

A No.

Q Did Di Martini ever visit you?

A Yes, several times.

Q Do you know who he came from?

MR. PFEIFFER: What is the purpose of that?

MR. SIMPSON: Because Mrs. Hall might have told him that Di Martini was coming to see him.

MR. PFEIFFER: May I ask that that be put on the record?

MR. SIMPSON: Certainly, put it on twice, if you want to.

THE COURT: Is there an objection?

MR. PFEIFFER: I said, how can he know that. I asked to have the statement of Mr. Simpson put on the record.

THE COURT: It is on the record.

Q Mrs. Hall - I will make it again, because it is possible Mrs. Hall may have told him. Have it on three times if you want it. Now, do you know who Di Martini came from?

A I think he came from Mrs. Hall.

Q Not what you think, do you know? Did you have any talk with Mrs. Hall about it? Did you find him in Mrs. Hall's house?

A No, I haven't.

Q Have you worked in the church ever since?

A No, I quit the first of the year.

Q Which first of which year? A 1923.

Q That is after the killing. Well, up to that time were you frequently going in Mrs. Hall's house from the church?

A No.

Q You weren't called in the church? A No.

MR. SIMPSON: Cross examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. PFEIFFER:

Q Mr. Mills between the early Friday morning of the 15th and Saturday afternoon of the 16th when you and Mrs. Hall were notified that the two bodies were found, did Mrs. Hall come to you and have some conversation with you about the fact that her husband was missing?

A Yes sir, on Friday.

Q And you knew that your wife was missing and you knew her husband was missing? Right?

A Correct.
